Section 5 – Parental Media Waiver
From time to time, cadets and officers are photographed or videotaped during training. By enrolling your child, you consent to the use of this material for the production of public awareness and training tools.
* In the case of a refusal, an explanatory document will be attached to this form if the parent deems it necessary

Section 5 – Cadet Code of Conduct

The Navy League of Canada is committed to providing a learning and working environment for all persons that is free from harassment.

The Navy League of Canada requires employees, officers, cadets, parents, volunteers and all other visitors to conduct themselves in a manner that promotes and protects the best interests and well being of cadets, staff and volunteers.

As a condition of membership, all Navy League Cadets must accept the following responsibilities:

- Always treat others fairly and with respect;
- Always consider you safety and the safety of your shipmates;
- Show support for Canada, your community and your corps;
- Demonstrate self-discipline and self-respect;
- Attend meetings regularly and be on time;
- Participate in all activities to the best of your abilities;
- Maintain your uniform and other equipment entrusted to your care; and,
- Follow the rules and listen to the direction of officers and senior cadets.

Members of the Navy League Cadet program have the following rights:

- To be treated fairly and with respect;
- To be included as part of the group;
- To seek help from friends, parents, officers and volunteers;
- To make decisions;
- To use the law to protect yourself and others;
- To feel safe;
- To learn;
- To say "NO" to unwelcome behaviour;
- To never be alone with an officer or volunteer; and,
- To be protected from all forms of harassment and abuse.

Failure to follow your responsibilities, as outlined above, will result in corrective action, as deemed appropriate by corps staff. Repeat or serious offences may cause you to loose your membership privileges.
